Inside this Report:

Shining lights in the dark
A decade defined by crisis has fostered innovation but big challenges lie ahead

Foreword by Lionel Barber
Firms have gone from outright scepticism to embracing technology that can deliver much greater value to clients

Front runner
David Morley has driven his firm, Allen & Overy, to be the first mover in many fields in recent years

A new tack for austere times
The willingness of firms to experiment has been strongest in some of Europe's weaker economies
